Relocation services is not just a buzz word, it is what we do. When a company selects the employ they need to be in the Katy, Houston area, the company is investing a lot of time, money, and energy in the move.

The employee and their family are the most important people to the company and they expect them to be treated like family.

The employee may have a relocation company assigned to assist in the paper work, and logistics of the move, and the relo company is a valuable service.

But the real estate agent is the "boots on the ground" that has the knowledge of the area, schools, neighborhoods. amenities, pricing, financing, inspection services and the various service vendors to be used during and after the purchase has been purchased.
